Introduce Yourself

This will be posted in our blog later, together with below pictures. At this article, everybody can vote for you via "like" on Facebook, Twitter and also Google+.

Your Most Satisfactory Bleach Cosplay Photo (You can send us the links to download the pictures. Or send us the pictures via email directly. No more than 5 please. And each picture should refer to a different costume or character. Make a simple description for the picture please (it's better to cover the anime and the cartoon character you were imitating in the description).)

We Will Be Grateful If You Are Willing to Make an Interview Here. Below Are Questions:

1. How did you know our contest? And how much have you known about Miccostumes.com?
2. Is Bleach cosplay your favorite theme? Which character from Bleach do you most like? Is the costume for this character covered here or in our store?
3. What's your first cosplay? How do you think about it? Is there any photo shared with us?
4. Is there any cosplay plan recently? Or which cosplay convention are you interested in taking part in?
5. How long will you continue to do cosplay? Or do you think you will do it all the time? What does cosplay mean to you? Is there any element rather attractive for you?
6. We will be interested to know the most memorable moment you got during cosplay.
7. It's believed our cosplay fans will be grateful if you can share us with your experience in this performance art. What's the most important aspect for a cosplay beginner?
8. Do your family members support you? Do you often talk about your cosplay works with them? Do they also love what you've done?

What else do you want to offer? For example:

1. Would you like to take a video to ask votes for support? Upload the video to Youtube. In this case, we can also cite the video into the blog article we will make for you.
2. You are strongly recommended to download and print our contest logo. Take a photo with it. It's not compulsive to wear a cosplay costume while taking this photo.
